NEWSLETTER 5: Raring to go!

1. LAST WORDS AND RECOMMENDATIONS
2. LAST REMINDER AND MEETING POINT MAP
Our string of newsletters has finally come to an end – and yet, this is not the start but merely the beginning! You are very, very close to coming face to face with all your fellow volunteers, all the Spaniards that you will get to know and love on the program and the professional and dedicated staff (the program director and master of ceremonies) that will guide you all through it! How exciting is this?! We don't know about you but we are bouncing up and down and champing at the bit!

Please forgive us, but our Don Quixote repertoire is dying out; at least those adages that might be relevant to our adventure. Let's go with Macbeth. As he foresaw impending death, he continued on the futility of life: “Life is ... a tale told by an idiot, full of sound and fury, signifying nothing.” Maybe so, but in our brief moment together at VaughanTown or FiftyFifty, we will produce unending sound and pursue our mission with ruthless fury. We will make these 6 days signify something very important indeed for our Spanish visitors. We will make them see that there is no other place on earth where more English is learned in less time than at VaughanTown and FiftyFifty.
Apart from our Spanish visitors, we noble English speakers will cast our fate to the wind and enjoy ourselves like little kids entering an amusement park. The psychologist Alfred Adler said that “the chief danger in life is that you may take too many precautions”. That’s easy to say, especially if, like Alfred Adler, you have few financial worries, but in any case, it’s a good thing for us to apply in our project at hand. Don’t take precautions while at the programme. Be inquisitive, delve into the lives of your Spanish counterparts, and enjoy the experience to its fullest. It is you and only you who will transform your Spanish friends into believers in their own ability to communicate.

You will be surprised at how instrumental you will be in effecting a genuine metamorphosis in the self-confidence of your Spanish friends. You will achieve more for more people in less time that you have ever achieved in your life. That we can guarantee. Most importantly of all, you will have a wonderful time. You will not feel the direct impact of your participation at least with your fellow Volunteers. You will ultimately be performing a collective miracle and you will see it happening as each day progresses. In the end you will build that bridge for your new friends and you will feel happy and fulfilled.
2. Last reminder and Meeting Point Map

We look forward to seeing you at our Tapas reception held the Saturday before every program from 5pm to 7pm.

Click here to see where the Tapas Reception will be held and what time your program departs!

If you are impatient to meet your fellow Volunteers, you can start now by going on our Facebook Event page! https://www.facebook.com/pg/VaughanTeachersandVolunteers/events or responding to the email thread that delivered this Newsletter!

With this, we bring our newsletters to an end. Thank you.

Regards,

The Team.

See you here in no time!
